DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

THE GREAT VIRGINIA CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

The great Convention of the Conservatives of Virginia, which assembled in Richmond, on Wednesday, was attended by between 800 and 1,000 delegates, embracing a large number of the most distinguished gentlemen in the State. Thus far, we have only seen, in detail, the first day's proceedings, though the telegraph, on yesterday, gave us an abstract of its subsequent action.

The following is the address of the Hon. A. H. H. Stuart, on being conducted to the Chair:

Gentlemen of the Convention:—I thank you for the honor you have done me in calling me to preside over a Convention which embodies so large a share of the virtue, intelligence and patriotism of Virginia.

We have assembled, gentlemen, under circumstances of peculiar interest and solemnity. This is no Convention to advance the interests of a mere party. Thank Heaven, it the late fearful conflict has done no other good, it has effaced all old party lines and subdued all old party irritations. We come together, not as Whigs or Democrats, but as Virginians, earnestly devoted to the promotion of the interests and honor of our common mother. Nor have we come together in any factious spirit or with any aggressive purpose.

Whatever opinions individual members of this Convention may have entertained in the past as to the right of a State to withdraw from the Union, I think I may safely affirm that they have been abandoned as impracticable. The questions arising out of those opinions have been referred to the arbitrament of arms, and, having been decided adversely, all now feel that they are bound in honor, as well as impelled by interest, to stand by the award.

The people of Virginia now desire repose, and they earnestly seek a restoration of their constitutional relations to the Union as the best means of affording it. They feel, too, that the material interests of all parts of our widely extended country are impaired, and our liberties imperilled, by the longer continuance of the present unhappy strife, and we seek a restoration of the Union as the most efficient remedy for all the evils of which we complain.

When the war ceased we were told that if we snartified our ordinance of secession, and repudiated the Confederate debt, and perfected the emancipation of our slaves by adopting the constitutional amendments, we would be restored to our Constitutional rights. To these conditions we promptly acceded, because they involved no sacrifice of our self-respect and were attended by no national degradation. We have faithfully fulfilled all these conditions, and yet our rights are withheld. May we not, under these circumstances, appeal to the justice and good faith of the North for the redemption of the promises thus made to us?

Looking to events which have happened in other Southern States, the people of Virginia have been led to fear that a policy is to be inaugurated there which tends, if it be not designed, to subvert our whole social fabric and to bring the land of Washington, Henry, Jefferson, Madison and Marshall under the dominion of an alien and inferior race. We should be false to all the instincts of humanity—false to the blood which courses through our veins—false to every publication of duty to ourselves, our kindred and our country, if we did not earnestly protest against and seek to arrest so fearful a calamity.

We hope our fears may be unfounded.—We hope we may be spared this attempted degradation. But it is the part of prudence to guard against all contingencies.—It is for this purpose that we have met to take counsel together to-day. We wish with one united voice to appeal to the patriotic people of the North to come to our relief and stay the hands of those who would oppress and degrade us.

We desire further to perfect our organization, so that all who desire that this shall continue to be a white man's government may be able to act in concert; and by one vigorous and united effort save ourselves from ruin and disgrace. We prefer military rule to the despotism of an ignorant rabble. And we wish to declare, with earnestness and emphasis, that, come what may, we and those we represent can never agree that this shall be any other than a white man's government. Our rights may be wrested from us by violence, but we will never agree that our proud old mother shall be presented in the attitude of consenting to her own degradation.

The Richmond Enquirer, commenting upon the character of the Convention, says:

"The vast throng of gentlemen who yesterday filled every seat in our spacious Theatre, proved that Virginia is neither dead nor sleeping. In the days of the old Commonwealth there could not have assembled a body more remarkable for distinguished talents than the Conservative Convention now in session in our midst.—All party lines having been broken down, the leaders of the old Whig and Democratic parties met as a band of brothers, with greetings as cordial and a purpose as earnest as if they had never been divided by the great issues which died amid the terrible throes of civil war. Not only is every county in the State represented, but we do not recollect scarcely a single Virginian distinguished for talent who is not a delegate.

Statesmen of national reputation, whose voices in the better days of the Union never fell unheeded upon the public ear, are here to protect their State. Distinguished soldiers, lawyers, divines, merchants and farmers—in a word, the leading representatives of every vocation and pursuit—are members of the Convention. The crowds which fill our streets, hotels and the theatre recall those glorious days when the rule of the white man was supreme in the land of Washington, Henry and Jefferson, and when our halls of legislation were not polluted by a herd of Mongrels and Yahoos!

No one can mingle with the members of this very able body now in session in this city and fail to perceive that the men who have long shaped the destinies of Virginia will not become the serfs of the negroes and their depraved white parasites. There is upon the part of every delegate to the Convention a ready acquiescence in the right of the Federal Government to exact obedience to the Constitution and laws, but there is a fixed and most resolute determination that the negro shall not be permitted to destroy that splendid fabric of civilization, the foundation of which our ancestors laid centuries ago. There is not a delegate to the Convention who does not cheerfully award to the negro every right which is essential to the security of his life and property, but the bold, resolute spirit of the body disdains the thought of the brutal negro, and the still more degraded white renegade, becoming their masters.

In no convention which ever met in Virginia was the State so thoroughly represented as in this body. Not less, we imagine, than eight hundred delegates, at a time of great pecuniary scarcity, have braved the inclemency of winter, and are here from the mountains to the sea-shore. From the Valley, from Piedmont, from South west Virginia, from the Southside, from Tidewater, from the Peninsula and the Eastern Shore—we have able and full representatives.—Venerable Virginians of the old school, the friends of Randolph, of Jefferson and Monroe, the surviving members of Conventions and Legislatures which have become famous in history, have emerged from long retirement, and are here to encourage by their counsels the youth who are just entering upon the duties of life."

"SUPPOSING THAT GAIN IS GODLINESS."

St. Paul was describing a set of men, when he used these words as partially illustrative of their character, who, could they have lived in these modern days, would have been Radicals of the "straitest sect."

If we may paraphrase and alliterate the expression, as applicable to the Radicals of the present time, we would make it read: Supposing that pelf is patriotism.

Pelf!—"how much will it pay?"—that is the experimentum crucis, by which Radical "patriotism" is tried.

The fund in the hands or at the disposal of the "National Republican Executive Committee," at Washington, has been promotive of an amount of "loyalty" that is positively amazing. A similar amount spent in an effort to evangelize the heathen would not be productive of a tithe of the number of conversions, real or professed; which proves that venality is nearer akin to civilization than is flattering to the popular idea concerning progress. Men who, a few short years ago, were blatant advocates of the war, in the South, who spit upon the old Constitution and maligned and derided the Union, who abused the "Yankees" and clamored for their extermination, have, by a prompt application of greenbacks, been magically converted, not only into loyal patriots and good Unionists, but into great men and surprising orators as well,—and, in the pay of the Committee aforesaid, they have been trampoosing the country, enlightening the multitudes and astonishing the natives by their statesmanship and eloquence. Newspapers which, during the war, were so full of blood and thunder, that "light" flashed from every type and glittered in every comma, colon and exclamation-point, have, under the gentle titillations of Mr. McPherson, been soothed and mollified into delightful vehicles of "loyal" thought and sentiment. Talk of Ratzy's system of subjugating animal ferocity!—Let him discard his theory and try shin-plasters.

They are, indeed, a sort of Radical catholicon. They have not only been efficacious in begetting a healthy "loyalty," but have been known to promote digestion to such an extent, that the "iron clad" could be swallowed by stomachs, which one might naturally suppose would revolt at the diet, without the slightest qualm.

At the North, the party is built upon the same honest "supposition" that lucre and loyalty are one and the same thing. Under the patriotic conviction that Radical possession of the offices and enjoyment of the many perquisites thereof are essential to the salvation of Republican institutions, plighted faith has been violated, ten States robbed of their Constitutional rights and placed under military satraps, an inferior race invested with political immunities which are the birthright of white American citizens, (but of which many of them have been despoiled,) large monied monopolies created, excessive taxes imposed, and other untold enormities perpetrated.

Gain and godliness—pelf and patriotism—lucre and loyalty,—dollars and devotion to the Union! So they go, in interesting and inseparable couples,—a spectacle for all the world to gaze at.

OLD THAD. STEVENS has gone "clean daft." He has introduced a bill to establish a system of Common Schools, in the District of Columbia, in which white children shall be compelled to associate with negroes, or dispense with the advantages of a free education. One section of the bill provides that every teacher shall cause to be recited, at least once a day, by each pupil, the words of the Declaration of Independence: "All man are created equal, they are endowed by the Creator," &c.—Another section provides that a cemetery shall be laid apart for the inmates of the schools, over which shall be placed the inscription: "Pallida mors æqua pulsat pede pauperum tabernas Regumque turres." This will be highly edifying to the juveniles of African descent.

It will be remembered that old Thad, some time since, withdrew his subscription from the Lancaster cemetery, because it was appropriated exclusively to white interments. He does not wish, even in death, to be separated from his Black mistress.

THE TELEGRAPH, a few days since, communicated the fact that a negro had outraged the person of Mrs. Baker, the wife of a respectable citizen of Princeton, Indiana. He was seized by an excited mob and stabbed, shot and beaten till he was dead. A rope was then put around his neck and his lifeless body dragged through the streets and finally left on the public highway.—Commenting upon this occurrence, we stated that we should, for special reasons, watch, with much interest, the disposition that should be made of the case. So far, no arrests have been made, nor has there been any movement towards making any arrest.

HOW THE RADICAL POLICY PINCHES.—The New York World says that there are 80,000 persons, men and women, in New York city, out of employment, who are dependent upon daily labor for a living. In six months, there will be more than half a million of hungry laborers in the South, without bread or the employment to procure it. Had the restoration of the South been effected on constitutional and magnanimous principles, no such state of things would have existed.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN RANDOLPH.

At a meeting of the Conservatives of Randolph County, held at Ashboro, on the 7th. inst., Col. Zeladee Rush was called to the chair, and B. F. Hoover, Esq., was appointed Secretary.

Messrs. Jesse Walker, Jesse G. Hinshaw, and M. S. Robbins were appointed a committee to draft resolutions, who retired and presented the following, which were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has been suggested that the present condition of our country renders it prudent that a Convention of the Conservative people of our State be held at Raleigh at no distant day, to which Convention many of our sister Counties have already appointed delegates; and

WHEREAS, In the judgment of the Conservative people of Randolph County, is such of such momentous consequences have never before been presented to us as are likely to be in a very short time, upon the results of which the prosperity and even the perpetuity of our liberty depends:

Resolved, That the Conservatives of Randolph county are anxious to be restored to their proper and normal position in the sisterhood of the Union, from which they have never been severed by their consent.

Resolved, That while they are anxious for this result, and ready at any and all times peaceably to submit to the authorities of the United States, they can be but impressed with fearful apprehensions at the possible results of the deliberations of the Convention soon to assemble in the City of Raleigh, to frame a new Constitution for the State.

Resolved, That it behooves the people of the State to be on their watch-towers, and carefully to scrutinize the acts of said Convention, that they may be prepared to act wisely when the result of the deliberations of the Convention shall be submitted to them for their ratification or rejection.

Resolved, That we desire to see the colored population among us enjoy all their rights before the law, and educated and improved as fast as their capacity and the resources of the country will permit: but, at the same time, regarding the prosperity of Republican institutions as depending upon the intelligence of the persons to whom the elective franchise is entrusted, we cannot but view with serious apprehensions the extension of the elective franchise to the whole colored population of our State in their present ignorance.

Resolved, That the Chairman appoint forty delegates to attend the Conservative Convention at Raleigh, at such time as the Executive Committee may designate.

The meeting was addressed by Dr. J. M. Worth and J. G. Hinshaw, Esq. The delegates appointed embrace many of the most substantial citizens of the county.

SENATOR WILSON addressed a Radical meeting in Richmond, on Wednesday. He advised the Convention to adopt a Constitution that would be approved by the people. As to distranchisement, he was not only opposed to it, but he was in favor of extending its present limits. He declared the determination of Congress to stand by the Reconstruction Acts. But the people wont "stand" by Congress,—there's the difficulty.

C. N. B. EVANS, Esq., being about to sever his connection with the Danville Times, proposes to revive the old Milton Chronicle, which he successfully conducted for so many years. May he make a good thing of it! Evans is a sprightly paragraphist, and generally makes the "fur fly," wherever he strikes. The Chronicle will be furnished at $3 per annum, weekly.

Meeting of the Republican National Executive Committee—The National Convention to meet on the 20th. of May in the City of Chicago.

This committee met at noon to-day at Willard's Hotel. Gov. Ward, of New Jersey, the chairman, and a quorum of members, were present. The following are the names of those that were present:

John B. Clark, New Hampshire; Saml. T. Mussey, Maine; R. N. B. Gardiner, Vermont; W. C. Claflin, Senator; W. G. Ward, New Jersey; S. A. Purviance, Pennsylvania; J. S. Fowler, Senator, Tennessee; John B. Defrees, Indiana; B. C. Cook, Illinois; D. V. Smith, Iowa; H. W. Hoffman, Maryland; N. B. Smithers, Delaware; W. J. Cowing, Virginia; S. Judd, Wisconsin; Horace Greeley, New York; H. H. Starkweather, Connecticut; Wm. Windom, Minnesota; Thos. G. Turner, Rhode Island; M. Dwyer, Ohio; Gen. Pile, Missouri; Danl. R. Goodloe, North Carolina.

A contest was made in regard to W. J. Cowing, the representative from Virginia.—It was shown, however, that he was appointed by the late National Convention, had attended all the meetings of the committee, and that they could recognize no one appointed by any less authority than a National Convention.

A motion was made by Governor Ward, chairman, to change the name from National Republican to National Union Convention. This proposition was opposed by Horace Greeley, who said that a change of name would operate disastrously to the party. It was understood to have emanated from the friends of Gen. Grant. The proposition was not agreed to.

The committee decided to hold the next National Convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice President on Wednesday, the 20th. of May, 1868.

Cincinnati, St. Louis, and Chicago were suggested as the place for holding the Convention. After a spirited discussion on the subject the city of Chicago was chosen as the place to hold the Convention.

Those who favored the city of St. Louis, finding that this could not succeed, then favored Chicago, and the vote stood Chicago, 12, Cincinnati, 10.

The Committee then adjourned to meet at the call of the President.—Wash. Express.

UNPARALLELED EFFRONTERY.—Not content with having conferred upon the negro population that has flocked into this District from the adjoining counties of Maryland and Virginia, and from almost every other Southern State, the right to vote, to sit on juries, to hold office, &c., &c., the leaders of the negrophobia party here are circulating petitions to Congress, to "progress" to the perpetration of further outrages by passing laws to compel employers to hire negro labors. The next step will be to compel white people to marry negroes. Is it possible that these madmen in Congress, who are venting upon the defenceless people of Washington and Georgetown their petty spite for the severe rebuke administered to them by their constituents at home, fail to realize that they are invoking a storm of popular indignation that will sweep them out of existence forever!—Nat. Intelligencer.

A planter of forty years' standing, and a man of deep thought and vast information as well as practical sense, says: "There is an evil day at hand for the cotton lands of Mississippi. The piney woods are henceforth preferable for a home, and the salvation of this vast region is—sheep and scuppernongs."

STATE ITEMS.

——We notice the names of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. McRae, formerly of this City, but now of Memphis, among the arrivals in Washington.

——Mrs. Nethercutt, of Jones County, is not dead, as at first reported. She will probably survive her injuries. Col. Nethercutt was engaged in reading the Bible in the family circle, when murdered by the negro ruffians.

——On Saturday, the 7th inst., the cotton house of Mr. Wm. S. Battle, near Rocky Mount, was set on fire by the carelessness of some of the hands employed on the farm, and several thousand pounds of cotton were destroyed, inflicting upon Mr. Battle quite a serious loss.

On the same day a portion of the machinery attached to the driving wheel of Mr. Battle's cotton factory, at the Falls, became deranged, causing a general smash up, which will delay operations at these mills for at least a month.

Mr. Battle, as the North Carolinian remarks, is one of the most enterprising gentlemen in the State; and we sincerely regret his ill fortune, and wish that his praiseworthy efforts to build up the manufacturing interests of the State may be better rewarded hereafter.

——The late destructive conflagration in Wilson is said to have been the work of a negro incendiary.

——The graves of the Confederate soldiers in and near Fayetteville are in a neglected condition. The noble ladies of the goodly old town are anxious to take measures for their preservation. The News contains the following announcement:

"Certain ladies of the town, being desirous of paying the just debt of gratitude which they owe to the memories of these brave men, have made and elaborately embroidered a beautiful silken quilt of the richest and finest material. The designs are all of a different pattern and worked, many of them, on a ground not exceeding a square inch; the colors are contrasted and blended with true artistic skill,—beautiful sprays and bouquets of flowers, and various emblematical designs, combine to make up an article which for elegance of design, fineness of materials and superiority of execution has never been surpassed in this or any country. As an example of patient industry and devotion to the memory of departed merit, it is richly worth twice the sum named as approximating its value. Prompted by an exalted spirit of gratitude to those who are lying low, many of them in nameless graves,—the ladies have applied themselves to the task with untiring energy;—and the result is a complete success. The ladies acknowledge their indebtedness to the indefatigable industry and inexhaustible taste of Miss Maria L. Spear, who invented the unique style of making up the quilt. She also invented and stamped all of the beautiful and varied designs with which it is embellished. She did most of the execution, and rendered valuable assistance to the ladies employed in the different stages of progress.

They have given all they had, the labor of their hands, their time, their utmost skill, in the preparation of this article. They wish to dispose of it and with the proceeds to collect the honored ashes of their noble dead, to lay them side by side where they can with loving hands decorate their peaceful resting place, and to erect above them a fitting monument to mark the spot which shall be sacred to the memory of the loved and lost.

They offer to sell one thousand tickets at $1 per ticket, and, as soon as that number has been sold, to raffle the quilt."

——A fire occurred in Salisbury on Thursday. The stable of the late Mrs. Jenkins, in the very heart of the City, was destroyed. But for the fact that all the buildings in the vicinity were fire proof, serious damage would have ensued.

——Major Jno. Farrell, of Weldon, Proprietor of the Hotel at that place, died on Tuesday morning. He was an excellent citizen.

——Col. S. L. Fremont, Chief Engineer and Superintendent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, has established a low tariff to the Northern cities for vegetables, peaches, apples, grapes, grown along the line of the road. This is right.

The Old North State, speaking of the proposition to hold a State Convention of the Conservatives, says:

"No delegates have yet been appointed for this county. Action should be taken at an early day. Rowan can send as able and patriotic a delegation to the State Convention as any county in the State, and she will do it. She did her duty nobly in the late contest, and she will do it more nobly in the next. We hope the leading men will confer together and suggest a day for the call of a county meeting. Such a meeting was held at Wilmington a few days ago, in which men of almost every conceivable shade of previous political opinion acted together in perfect peace and harmony. Such old Whigs and consistent Union men as Daniel B. Baker united with such Democrats and Confederates as the gallant Col. Hall and Maj. Strange, late of the Confederate army. The past was forgotten and the actors remembered only their country in this the day of its greatest peril. It is only by such patriotism that our country can be saved from the dangers which threaten it. We hope that the spirit which animated the Wilmington meeting will animate the people of the whole State. If it does, then can North Carolina be saved from the ravages of negro dominion and the malice of radical rule."

——We learn, with regret, that Lewis Thompson, Esq., of Bertie, died at his residence, in that County, a few days since. Mr. Thompson was a gentleman of fine abilities, and had filled many important public positions.

COMPLIMENT TO GEN. HANCOCK.—General Hancock was at the opera last evening, with his family and staff, and, as soon as it became generally known that he was present, upon the suggestion of a gentleman in the audience, the whole house arose and gave three cheers for the new commander of the fifth military district. It was some time before the enthusiasm of the outburst subsided and the General was permitted to make his acknowledgments, which he did, at last, with his accustomed grace and dignity.—N. O. Crescent, 8th.

The Italian Government has amnestied all the captured Garibaldians. Compared with the conduct of most European governments on similar occasions, this is a commendable act of clemency.—N. Y. Tribune.

Why "European?" What of the American Government?

THE GERMANS AGAINST NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

The German element is very influential in American politics. There is scarcely a city or town in any State of the Union that does not contain a considerable German population. The sentiment of that class of voters is, therefore, a matter of importance and interest. It is estimated by a leading German paper in the West, The Anzeiger des Westens, that up to the Presidential election of 1856 nine-tenths of the German citizens, and those of German descent, belonged to the Democratic party, which they regarded as the progressive and popular party. They were drawn into the Republican party by the slavery question, being opposed to negro slavery, or any other kind of slavery. That was the only tie between the Germans and the Republicans. Emancipation being now effected, and the reintroduction of slavery being impossible, the bond of union and sympathy between the Germans and Republicans has come to an end. As the German paper to which we refer well says:

"The abolition of slavery was one thing; the participation of a semi-barbarous race—naturally inferior to our own, deficient in culture and education, and barely freed from the bonds of slavery—in the government of this country, and their exclusive rule over one-third of the States in this Union, is a question of an entirely different character. We have not the least doubt that an immense majority of the Germans are opposed to the unconditional right of suffrage to be given to the negroes. At all events, it is certain that only a very imperceptible fraction of the Germans would, for the sake of the success of the negro suffrage programme, take into the bargain all the other follies and crimes of that party, which they entered exclusively for the purpose of abolishing slavery and preserving the Union."

The same journal claims that this view is held by prominent Germans in Illinois, Minnesota, Ohio, and indeed all the States:

"They all aver their opposition to slavery, but, at the same time, protest against negro suffrage and equality, and declare they will not accept them or act with a party which wishes to make the negro their equal at the ballot box and in the halls of legislation.

In thus declaring against the Radical party, the Germans fix the status of the Western States for the Presidential contest. The Radicals cannot get rid of the negro. They must carry him for the race; and thus weighted, their defeat is certain."

Special Correspondence of Baltimore Gazette.

TROUBLE IN CONTROLLING THE NEGRO VOTE—MIGRATORY HABITS OF THE NEGROES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Since the rebellion the Northern politicians seem to have learned much respecting the habits and customs of the negro population of the South, and many of these habits involve serious difficulties on the part of the Radical managers in regulating and controuling the negro vote. During the process of registration thousands of names were assumed by negroes, who found it difficult afterwards to remember them. This led to much confusion and something of a mortifying exposure during the voting on the question of calling State Constitutional Conventions. But the most difficult problem for the Radical managers to solve is how they can make available a negro vote after Christmas. They have ascertained the fact that at Christmas the southern negroes, from instinct or habit, change locality and become so scattered that it will be next to impossible to identify them on the registration lists, and hence serious fears are entertained as to the result of the vote on the adoption or ratification of the several Constitutions when submitted to the people.—All things may be ordered for the best, and this well known propensity of the African to change his residence at Christmas, may be the means of defeating the whole Congressional scheme of fastening negro government upon ten States of the Union. A delegation from Alabama was here a few days since in consultation with Schenck's committee, and the opinion given was that the Alabama Constitution would be lost unless the election was postponed sufficiently long after Christmas to allow the Bureau agents to hunt up the scattered freedmen and identify them as registered voters.

THE CHARGES AGAINST "IMPEACHER ASHLEY."

In the Washington correspondence of the Cincinnati Commercial the following statement occurs:

"It is given out by reliable men that a committee will be appointed in the House to investigate charges against Ashley for attempting to suborn witnesses against Johnson in the late impeachment investigation."

We have no means of ascertaining how reliable this announcement may be; but we fear that the proposition mentioned approaches too nearly to justice to be seriously entertained by the present Radical majority in Congress. In his reluctant statements to the Judiciary Committee, Impeacher Ashley unblushingly confesses his participation in a vile conspiracy (the details of which had already been published) for the subornation of perjured testimony to encompass the removal, and even the death, of the President of the United States. If Congress has any respect for itself collectively, or for its members individually, it should, as a solemn duty to itself, to them, and to the people, promptly, and thoroughly, and impartially investigate this damning charge against one of that body, who has acted so prominent a part in its most disreputable proceedings. To pass it over in silence now will be to share the obloquy justly attached to the very grave offence that has been shamelessly confessed.—Nat. Int.

MEN AND WOMEN OUT OF EMPLOYMENT IN NEW YORK.—The New York World publishes a carefully prepared statement, showing that fifty thousand men and women in that city are now out of work, and calls the serious attention of Congress (which devotes so much of its attention to radical legislation) to the startling fact.—The World says:

"Fifty thousand persons in New York, who live by the labor of their hands, out of employ, is a more truthful statement of our financial condition than columns of deftly arranged figures relating to the national debt. Look at some of the facts: Of the 28,000 artisans employed in the jewelry business, 40 per cent. are out of employ; carpenters' wages have been reduced from $3,50 to $2,50 a day, and only half of the journeymen can find employment; of hatters, there are 400 who can get work but one day in six; of the 20,000 tailors in the city, one-quarter are unemployed, the quantity of work for them is 30 per cent. less than that assigned them at this time last year, and their wages have been reduced by 33½ per cent; the iron-workers say that their business has not been so dull in twenty years as it is now; at least 1,000 shipwrights are out of employ, and from one end of the East river to the other but five vessels are building, of which two are steamboats, two are ferry boats, and one is a sailing vessel; and, to close this sad list, it is estimated that 3,000 servant girls are seeking places, but find none."

Rev. John Beckwith has determined to remain in New Orleans during the present winter.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee, and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nealy two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

DEATH OF T. J. UTLEY, Esq.—We regret to hear of the death of this worthy gentleman, at his residence, in this County, on Thursday morning. He had all those generous qualities which are calculated to make and retain friends.

QUERE No. 1.—If the present municipal authorities are not continued, any new officers that may be appointed will be required to take the test-oath. How many of those recommended by the negro meeting, on Monday night, can honestly take it?

COLD WEATHER.—The weather was very severe on yesterday. A slight sprinkling of snow fell on Thursday night, and more is threatened. The telegraph advises us that one of the severest snow storms ever known is prevailing at the North—especially in Ohio.

AN ASSOCIATION, styled the Virginia Nursery and Wine Association, has been organized in Richmond, with a large capital.

FARMERS AND FRUIT GROWERS.—Col. Fremont, the enterprising Superintendent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, gives notice that any quantity of vegetables, Peaches, Grapes, Apples and other fruit, will be sent North by that Railroad, on terms so moderate, and the articles so well protected, as ought to induce many of our people to go into the business.

Immense sums of money might be made by giving close attention to the cultivation of early vegetables and fruits to supply the Northern cities. The counties lying on the Raleigh and Gaston, Wilmington and Weldon, and the North Carolina Railroads, might do well by attending to this trade. Early vegetables of all kinds, properly put up, and early fruits, or choice fruits of all kinds, can be produced here, and should be, in large quantities.

"DIXIE PUMP."—This ingenious piece of mechanism, which has been examined by some of the best mechanics in the country and pronounced the ne plus ultra of Pumps, is now on exhibition, on the corner of Fayetteville and Hargett Streets. It combines all the requisites of a Pump for ordinary use, and, also, the qualities of an engine to extinguish flames. It is also valuable for irrigation purposes.

The patent is only about twelve months old, and we are told that already $60,000 worth of territory has been sold. This is a good beginning, to be sure, and speaks volumes for the Pump and its energetic proprietors.

TWO DEMOCRATS SPEAK ON THE CONFISCATION BILL.

In the House of Representatives, Tuesday—

Mr. Chandler addressed the House against the measure, declaring that it was time that the black rag of confiscation should be lowered, and the Union Jack raised in its stead. He replied to and denounced the argument made by Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, last March, in advocacy of the bill, and supported his own position by references to events in ancient and modern history bearing upon the point of general confiscation. In conclusion, he said that the black flag must come down; that the death's head and cross bones so long used as a bug-a-boo against the people of the South, was an insult to that people; that the South must be reconstructed, and the white race there rehabilitated in the full power which belonged to it as an inheritor of the founders of the Government.

Mr. Eldridge followed on the same side. He commenced by declaring that it was time the Union was restored, and that the people were enjoying the fruits of their victory.—Why, he asked, had not the Union been restored? The faithful and impartial historian would, in answering that question, prefer a most fearful inuictment against the party which had control of the Government. It would show a record of cruel despotism, of wicked usurpation, of violated law, of broken faith, of unfulfilled promises, of rights disregarded, of constitutions overthrown, and of civil liberty trodden under foot—and all in the interest of a mere party. Referring to the declaration of Mr. Stevens that the lives and property of the people of the South were at the disposal of the victor government, he denounced it as most atrocious. In the name of the Union, its cherished memories, and sacred hopes, he denied it; in the name of the Constitution—yet living and in force, however much ignored and disregarded—he denied it; in the name of the common law of nations, he denied it. There was no law, human or divine, by which it could be defended. Robbery was the main-spring and inspiring motive of the bill. It would have to go back for its precedents to the days of savage cruelties. There never had been a proposition so terrible or so atrocious. It was in direct violation of the Constitution, being both a bill of attainder and an ex post facto law. There was no war now; no insurrection; no rebellion. By what right was war enforced? By what right did Congress dispose of life and liberty in the South? By what right was the sword of power upheld? There was no longer any belligerency, and therefore Congress had no belligerent rights. He appealed to the Republican party to restore the Government, and make good its pledges and promises to save the Union. All the reconstruction measures were but the last resort of a desperate party, and were devised, not by statesmen in the interest of the country, but by politicians in the interests of party.

The bill was postponed till the 21st of January next.

The Huntsville (Ala.) Independent says that a large portion of the cotton now in the fields will not be gathered, because of the inability of the planters to get laborers. There are hundreds of able bodied negro men in the county and about town, who utterly refuse to do any regular work, contented to cultivate a little truck patch, and to do trifling jobs about the streets, simply to supply their necessary wants of food. And the few that pretend to work do not do half the work they did in former times.

MORE EARTHQUAKES.—Hopins, Dec. 9.—Advices from Porto Rico to the 2d inst., have been received. A terrible earthquake shock occurred there on the 1st instant.—At one place the inhabitants were at church, hearing mass, and the scene which ensued was most pitiable. The people were dashed together. The consternation was terrible, and the cries of the women and children heart-rending.

We have never heard of a more humiliating confession than that publicly made by the Radical League in Philadelphia in nominating Gen. Grant for President. They declare that they nominated him "believing" him to be a Republican. In other words, destruction stares them in the face, and, reckless of principle, they seize upon him as a drowning man seizes a straw.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13—P. M.

Mr. Wilson presented a memorial from John Warren an American citizen in a British jail, charged with Fenianism. The petition states that Warren was in New York, when the crimes charged were committed.

Mr. Sumner presented the usual number of petitions. Among them was one from 20,000 Kentucky negro soldiers, praying for the equalization of bounties.

The bill repealing the cotton tax came up.

Mr. Morrill thought it was a great mistake to act on this bill now. The whole question should come up at once.

Mr. Johnson gave notice of an amendment, applying the bill to this year's crop. Postponed.

A resolution, adjourning from the 20th inst. to the 6th prox., passed.

The House, after some unimportant business, went into Committee of the whole and adjourned to Monday.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13, P. M.

Forty employees of the Agricultural Department, mostly women, have been dismissed. Large numbers in the other Departments will be discharged. Great destitution prevails in consequence.

Revenue to-day $262,000.

The Senate Finance Committee will report unfavorably on Edmund Cooper's confirmation as assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

The Senate Judiciary Committee will report favorably on the case of Senator Thomas, of Maryland.

It is represented that against 50 distilleries in New York before the tax, there are now over 700, and it is admitted that all must in one way or another evade the tax or lose money. It is claimed that outside of the facilities for feeding stock, the Western distilleries have an advantage in freight, but that Eastern shrewdness in evading the tax ruins the Western distilleries.

VIRGINIA RECONSTRUCTION CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, Dec. 13, P. M.

In the Convention, to-day, a communication was received from Schofield, approving the ordinance fixing the pay of members and officers of the Convention.

An ordinance was reported, paying the Reporter $3,33 a page for the debates reported.

A petition was received, praying the passage of a homestead law. Judge Sneed denounced it as a proposition for downright robbery, and in opposition to the Constitution of the United States, under which the Convention existed. Referred.

A resolution, appointing a Committee to memorialize Congress to allow the Freedmen's Bureau, in view of the destitution in the State, to remain here till reconstruction is complete, was laid on the table.

A colored delegate offered a resolution to appoint a Committee to wait on Gen. Schofield, and ask him to remove the present State officers; and, failing in that, to go to Washington for the same purpose, or procure an amendment to the law so as to give the Convention the right to remove them. Laid on the table.

The resolution of yesterday, relative to the intimidation by disloyal land-holders of loyal voters of the Republican ticket, and an amendment to it relative to the intimidation of colored voters who voted the Conservative ticket, by other colored men, were called up but laid over till to-morrow.

THE GEORGIA CONVENTION.

ATLANTA, Dec. 13, P. M.

A series of resolutions were adopted asking Congress to repeal the cotton tax.

A white delegate offered his resignation.

Bradley, a negro, said that he doubted if he could resign, under Gen. Pope's order for a Convention.

GEORGIA POLITICS.

ATLANTA, Dec. 13, P. M.

A County Conservative meeting, under a call of the late State Convention at Macon, was held here to-night. There was much enthusiasm and a resolution was adopted, suggesting a National Convention at Louisville, on the 23d of February, to form a party for the restoration and preservation of the Union on the principles of the Constitution.

NEGRO MOB IN GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, Dec. 13—P. M.

A mob of about fifty armed negroes threatened, on Tuesday night, to attack the students of the Georgia University, at Athens. The students armed in turn, and a difficulty was imminent, but troops were ordered out and they dispersed the negroes.

HEADQUARTERS POPE "IN THE SADDLE"—SENSIBLE MOVEMENT BY CONSERVATIVE COLORED MEN.

MONTGOMERY, Dec. 13—P. M.

Pope's political axe is still swinging. Nine Judicial and Ministerial officers have recently been removed, to give place to 'loyal Republicans.'—Five of his appointees were extreme Republicans, and members of the late Convention.

A Conservative colored meeting was held last night to organize a Conservative Club. The whole affair was managed by the blacks. The colored speakers denounced the so-called Carpet-Bag members of the Reconstruction Convention and declared that the colored people were enemies to themselves, if they any longer refused to heed the advice and counsel of their true and tried friends, the old inhabitants of the South. The resolutions adopted declared in strong terms against the ratification of the Constitution.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Life Insurance continues to occupy the most serious consideration of the heads of families, who, by the casualties of war, short crops and short price of Cotton, have been deprived of the support they relied upon, in case of death for their dependents; and the question with them is, "Which is the OLDEST, SAFEST, LARGEST, MOST ECONOMICAL and RELIABLE COMPANY represented in North Carolina?" I unhesitatingly assure them that I have indisputable evidence that the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE Co. is, without doubt, prepared to prove, from the most trustworthy and authentic official reports, that she has a larger amount of assets than all other Companies in this State combined; that for eighteen years she has declared an average of fifty per cent dividend; for thirteen years her interest on investment has exceeded her losses; and her vast business is conducted at a much less expense.

All she makes is shared by the insured. No Stockholder receives the lion's share of the profits, and no Company pays its losses more promptly. Last year (1866) she paid to widows and orphans upwards of a Million of Dollars. Therefore, apply at once to P. F. PESCUD, Agt.,

LIFE INSURANCE.

[From the Insurance Monitor and Weekly Bulletin, New York.]

A Well-deserved Success—The Equitable Life Insurance Company.

The approaching demolition of seven buildings, consisting of that almost impenetrable fortress, "Old Guerin's," the less ancient "Bank of Commerce," and the present office-building of the American Express Company, on the southern corner of Broadway and Cedar street, together with three adjoining buildings on the latter street, is still more suitable to that modern insurance giant, the Equitable Life. These seven buildings are all to be replaced by one, six stories in height, including basement, and having a frontage of 95 feet 9 inches on Broadway, and one hundred and fifty-three and a half feet four inches on Cedar street. A number of the first architects in the country are engaged in perfecting plans for the structure, so as to make it in style, accommodation, and convenience, superior to any other building of the kind yet erected.

The building will, however, not only be made to accommodate the Company, but as arranged that the rental of such part as is not occupied by them will return an interest on the investment—The magnitude and surpassing growth of the Equitable Life not only justifies the movement, but render it both expedient and necessary. Although this Company has been only eight years in business, its policies issued during its eighth year covered an insurance amounting to over thirty-five millions of dollars. The total sum secured by it up to the present date approaches 100 000,000; its accumulations have run up to 5,000,000; its annual income to three millions, and will in the ensuing year doubtless expand to five million dollars.

For this rapid increase and substantial success there are abundant and satisfactory reasons. They are found in the numerous solid advantages the Company affords. In the fact that it is purely mutual, and that all its profits go to the insured on the first of February, every year, at which time a large dividend has been regularly paid, amounting last year to six hundred thousand dollars. Its mode of applying dividends, so as to accommodate them to the circumstances of the policy holders, is unequaled for the variety of the advantages it offers.

The Equitable has been enabled to deal thus liberally with its insured in consequence of the prosperity of its business and the thriftiness of its management. The percentage of its "total cost up," compared with its cash premium receipts, was less in 1866 than that of any other Company. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any rival institution. It insures on a single life any sum from $250 to $25,000, and issues all the most desirable non-forfeiting policies. All its policies are, however, comparatively new, and it is therefore carrying but few impaired risks. Its percentage of losses, to amount at risk, which is much less than that of older Companies, exhibits this fact. The Equitable is, indeed, full of vitality and progressive strength, and is regarded as the most successful and rising life insurance institution its age—the largest Life Insurance Company in the world.

NEW MOVEMENT IN LIFE INSURANCE.

We learn that some of the cash companies of this City have decided to adopt a uniform scale of premiums to take effect after the close of the present year, with a view to greater simplicity and uniformity in their business. The matter has been carefully dedu

AMBITION'S DREAM.

BY J. W. PARKER.

On a day when June was on the hills,
And summer in the vale was smiling,
When lordly sang the silver rills,
And bird and flower the day beguiling;
Down thro' the window-chinkey fell
A golden sunbeam, soft and still;
It threw its mellow radiance o'er,
And trembled on the parlor floor.

A little prattler on whose brow
But four sweet Springs were gently sleeping,
Came dashing in his wildness now,
Near where the golden ray was creeping.
He paused a moment, while his eye,
Which imaged forth the azure sky,
Kindled with new delight to meet
This golden picture at his feet.

As quick as thought his dimpled hand
Amid the mellow tints was feeling.
He did not fully understand
The wealth and beauty there revealing;
But thought beneath his pinafore
To hide his precious golden store,
And in his little heart to feel
The conscious pride he should conceal.

Once, thrice he grasped, then to his eyes
He raised the fancied glowing treasure,
And when he missed the golden prize,
His grief and sadness knew no measure;
And till his eyes were sealed in sleep,
He did not cease to sigh and weep.
That such a treasure, bright and new,
Should vanish rudely from his view.

This is ambition's dream, I said;
A sunbeam o'er our path is straying—
We chase the phantome, still ahead,
Amid the clouds and shadow playing;
Nor till the damp, deep sleep of death
Hath chilled the ardor of life's breath,
Can we persuade our sluggish sense
To seek the sure inheritance.

Valuable Lands and Mills for Sale.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF THE COURT of Equity for Johnston County, at Fall Term, 1867, I shall, on Saturday, the 18th day of January next, on the premises, proceed to sell, at public sale, that valuable property, near Boon Hill, in said County, known as consisting of fifteen hundred and ninety-five acres of Land, lying near the North Carolina Railroad, and within one and a half miles of Boon Hill Depot.

The said lands are the first quality of Cotton lands. About 800 acres are cleared, and have been in cultivation. The rest is in primitive forest, and is well timbered, although a considerable quantity of Pine Timber has been cut off.

The improvements consist of an excellent Saw Mill, with a forty-two inch circular saw, run by a Jonvals Turbine Wheel, which, for beauty of work and quickness of cutting, is unsurpassed. There is also a tram road from the Mill to the Railroad, where there is a turnout. Also a Grist Mill, which will grind 60 bushels of corn per day. Also a Store and Office, a Blacksmith Shop, and four houses for operatives, and beautifully situated on a hill, containing eight rooms, to which are attached all necessary outhouses and Stables, with two Gardens, one of which contains one of the largest and finest Scuppernong Arbors in the State.

The water on the place is excellent, and it is one of the healthiest locations in the low country.

TERMS OF SALE:

One hundred and fifty dollars cash; four thousand two hundred and fifty dollars on the 4th Monday in March, 1868, and notes at six and twelve months from the day of sale, bearing interest. For the balance, bonds with approved security will be required, and the title retained until the purchase money is paid. Possession given on the first day of February, 1868.
